Section 4 Règlements / Regulations

70. L'établissement ne peut pas exiger de paiement d'un client avant de commencer à exécuter son obligation, sauf le paiement de droits d'admission ou d'inscription n'excédant pas le montant déterminé selon les règlements du ministre.

Il ne peut exiger le paiement de l'obligation du client ou, si des droits d'admission ou d'inscription ont été versés, de son solde en moins de deux versements sensiblement égaux. Les dates d'échéance des versements doivent être fixées de telle sorte qu'elles se situent approximativement au début de chaque moitié, calculée en mois, en leçons ou en unités, de la durée des services éducatifs auxquels l'élève est inscrit.

71. Le client peut, à tout moment et à sa discrétion, résilier le contrat en donnant avis à cet effet par courrier recommandé. Le contrat est résilié de plein droit à compter de la réception de l'avis.

72. Si le client résilie le contrat avant que la prestation des services n'ait été entreprise, l'établissement ne peut exiger qu'une inscription du moins élève des montants suivants: le montant maximal déterminé selon les règlements du ministère ou un montant représentant au plus un dixième du prix total convenu pour ces services.

73. Si le client résilie le contrat après que la prestation des services ait été entreprise, l'établissement ne peut exiger du client que les montants suivants:

1. Le prix des services qui lui ont été fournis calculés en mois, en leçons ou en unités et stipulés dans le contrat
2. À titre de pénalité, le montant obtenu en soustrayant les droits d'admission ou d'inscription du moins élève des montants suivants: le montant maximal déterminé selon les règlements du ministère ou un montant représentant au plus un dixième du prix total convenu pour ces services.

74. Dans les dix jours qui suivent la résiliation du contrat, l'établissement doit restituer au client les montants qu'il a reçus en excédent de ceux auxquels il a droit.

75. Le client peut demander annulation du contrat, s'il constate que l'élève a été admis aux services éducatifs contre les règles régissant l'admission à ces services.

Gazette officielle de Québec – updated to Nov. 10, 1993

70. No institution may require payment from a client before beginning to fulfill its obligations. This does not apply to admission or registration fees which shall not exceed the amount determined by the Ministry.

The institution may not require the client to pay the total sum due, if admission or registration fees have been paid, in less than two equal payments.

The payment dates must be fixed in such a way that they are at the beginning of each period, or in credits for the duration of the school year for which the student is registered.

71. The client may, at any time and at his discretion, cancel the contract by giving notice to that effect by registered mail. The contract shall be canceled by operation of law from the receipts of the notice.

72. If the client cancels the contract before the provision of services has begun, the institution cannot demand compensation in excess of the amount obtained by subtracting the admission or enrollment fees from the lesser of the following two amounts: the maximum amount determined in accordance with the regulations of the Minister and an amount representing not more than one tenth of the total price agreed upon for the services.

73. If the client cancels the contract after the provision of services has begun, the institution may demand only the following amounts from the client:

1. The price of the services provided calculated in months, lessons, or credits as specified in the contract.
2. As penalty, the amount obtained by subtracting the admission or enrollment fees from the lesser of the following two amounts: the maximum amount determined in accordance with the regulations of the Minister and an amount representing not more than one tenth of the total price agreed upon for the services.

74. In the ten days following the cancellation of the contract, the institution must return to the client the amounts it has received in excess of these to which it is entitled.

75. The client may demand that the contract be annulled if he becomes aware that the student was admitted to the educational services concerned in contravention of the provisions governing admission to those services.
